4. Methodology & Data Sources

All price data is sourced from Yahoo Finance (yfinance Python package). Index changes calculated against the most recent 5 trading days (1-week) and the first close of the calendar year (YTD). Country tickers are pulled from the universe of stocks tracked by The Stock Radar's daily analysis pipeline (60–80 tickers per market). Currency pairs use Yahoo's USD-base symbols (KRW=X, JPY=X, INR=X, EURUSD=X).

Top movers are ranked by absolute weekly percentage change, regardless of direction. Tickers with insufficient liquidity (volume < 100k shares/day) are excluded.
